Dear Sir,

A BLESSED NEW YEAR !

The global health crisis we are facing today has shown the need not only for greater youth involvement in wholesome activities but also for their more active participation in uplifting God-centered activities that would help strengthen their faith, character and values needed to deal with the challenges brought by the pandemic. Much can be done to uplift one another and be resilient as we continue to move forward for greatness.

In this light, St. Louis School of Don Bosco Inc. celebrates its 56th Founding Anniversary this January 2023 and anchored on the theme : "As the Yeast in Today's Human Family". Several activities are lined up to commemorate the institution's 56 years of existence in Dumaguete City. One of the highlights of the celebration is the hosting of the 9th Inter-High School Christian Dance Competition on January 28, 2023 at 3:00 PM at Robinson's Place. We are cordially inviting the public and private secondary schools in the city to participate in this laudable activity showcasing the talents of the young thru dance.

With this, we are requesting endorsement from your office for official dissemination to the respective schools in the division of Negros Oriental on the above-mentioned competition. We look forward to your support on this spirit-filled activity as we continue to glorify the Lord through music and dance.

For details, you may contact Mme. Mimi Vintola at (035) 422-2712/(035) 225-0384 local 104 or mobile 09270215716.

God bless you and more power !

Yours in St. John Bosco,

REV. FR. ARTURO A. SANCHEZ JR., SDB
