Public District Supervisors/District-In-Charge
Public Elementary School Heads
Division Nurses
All Others Concerned

1. This Office informs ALL Concerned that the remaining Fresh Pasteurized Milk Feeding of ALL Mabinay Districts shall be Sterilized Milk starting on Monday, July 3, 2023.
2. This Office further reiterates that the standard operating procedure in handling milk products are still to be strictly implemented during the delivery and distribution.
3. The District SBFP Consignees and the School Inspection Team are directed to monitor and check the quantity and quality of the milk products, and shall report to the District Nurse assigned or the Division SBFP technical Working Group for any discrepancies of the delivery and/or milk products. Further, a copy of the SBFP Form 6 shall be accomplished and submitted to the District Office for filing and proper action if necessary.
4. All DIVISION NURSES are hereby directed to conduct a re-orientation and health education on food safety and food handling to All SBFP School Feeding Teachers of their assigned districts starting June 30-July 4, 2023. Accomplishment report shall be submitted to this office (Attn.: Melanie Austero RN, MSN – SBFP Milk Feeding Focal Person).
5. All Public Schools District Supervisors and Elementary School Heads are hereby instructed to strictly monitor the participation of their SBFP Feeding Teachers in this activity.
